

Failing telephone and internet connection at quada

Dear customers,

due to last week's flood disaster, we still have no internet or phone. We have limited access to our main email address (info@quada-office.com) and try to process all orders promptly. Unfortunately, we are not able to send you any order confirmations, offers or other correspondence at the moment. In urgent cases you can reach us on the following numbers (please note that we unfortunately have bad reception here and phone calls are sometimes hard to understand):

Swen Freeth 0170 322 00 51

Ulrich Freitagsmüller 0174 280 71 85

Jens Krause 0173 592 51 08

We hope that this situation will change as soon as possible and that we can be there for you again as usual.

Best regards

Your quada-team
